

Leptospermum laevigatum - coastal tea tree

Actinotus helianthii - flannel flower

Conodium ellatum - white paper daisy

Calytrix tetragona - fringe myrtle

Correa alba - white correa

Kunzia ambigua - tick bush

Dichelachne crinata - long hair plume grass

Baeckea imbricata - heath myrtle

Leptospermum petersonii - lemon scented tea tree

Pimelia linifolia - slender rice flower

Acacia ulicifolia - prickly moses

Goodenia ovata - hop goodenia

Acacia myrtifolia - Myrtle Wattle

Pultenaea stipularis - handsome bush pea

Acacia terminalis - sunshine wattle

Pultenaea lynophylla - halo bush pea

Pultenaea daphnoides - large leaf bush pea

Banksia spinulosa - hairpin banksia

Banksia ericifolia - lantern banksia

Grevillea speciosa - red spider flower

Darwinia fascicularis - rudge

Breynia oblongifolia - coffee bush

Correa reflexa - native fuchsia

Epacris longifolia - fuchsia heath

Pelargonium australe - wild geranium

Bayrea rubiodes - river rose

Indigofera australis - Australian indigo

Dianella congesta - flax lilly

Dianella caerulea - blue flax lily

Astramyrtilis dulcis - midgenberry

The Children's Forest

Children from SOS Preschool & Clovelly Child Care planted these eastern suburbs banksia scrub plants for Schools Tree Day, 28 July 2023, at the Randwick Sustainability Hub to celebrate their transition to primary school in 2024.

A TreeRites initiative, generously supported by Randwick City Council & Planet Ark. Plants supplied by Indigrow & Randwick Community Nursery.